

ARCHOS GROUP

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Our business covers a broad range of construction and telecommunications activities that can have a significant impact on the environment. Archos provides co-ordinated project delivery for concrete structures and civil construction. Archos is committed to an ecologically sustainable environment and therefore our organisation is committed to undertaking its activities in an environmentally responsible manner and this is reflected in the attitude of all Archos employees.

Responsible Environmental Management is a fundamental part of our business with our Integrated Management System based on the requirements of ISO 14001:2015.

Archos aims to maintain the environment by;

- Complying with statutory requirements, codes, standards and guidelines;
- Ensuring management are actively involved and provide demonstrated leadership to support continuous improvement in environmental performance;
- Communicating and consulting with all personnel, to increase their awareness of their environmental obligations and responsibilities, and providing the information, instruction and supervision required;
- Adopting best available practices for the reduction of pollution and emissions to air, water and land, and for the conservation of water and energy, and the reduction of waste;
- Reducing and recycling waste materials where possible and dispose of other waste material in a responsible manner;
- Monitoring, reviewing and evaluating the effectiveness of the processes and measures implemented, with a view to understanding and improving performance and identifying opportunities for improvement;
- Striving to continuously improve our systems and practices through a process of auditing, review and revision of environmental objectives and targets.

Our Organisation undertakes to consult its employees, contractors and the client on safety and environmental matters especially where any workplace change of practice may impact the environment or their obligations.

Archos will take all steps necessary to ensure that its activities do not compromise this commitment. Our vision to maintain the highest standard of environmental performance is communicated and shared by Archos employees.
